BSAC FIRST CLASS DIVER – Diving Knowledge Examination Centres

The Diving Knowledge theory exams will always take place on the first Saturday in March and September. The start time is 13.00 at a UK centre and the equivalent local time at overseas venues. Please circle your preferred venue from the list below.

The examination will last 1 hour.

Overseas candidates must make special arrangements where a local coaching scheme is not in operation. As a guideline a professional person or body not connected with diving is acceptable as a theory invigilator. Please give full details.
